GRAMMAR

IV Read the following passage and answer the questions set on it.

5x1=5

When the Parsis first came to Gujarat, the king didn't want them to settle there. He had already too many people in the kingdom. So he sent the Parsi community a diplomatic, symbolic message: a full glass of milk, to indicate the glass could contain no more. The Parsis poured a spoonful of sugar into it and stirred it, and sent back the glass of milk – indicating that like sugar they would mix with the population, take no extra space, and sweeten it all. The king was pleased and persuaded. The Parsis came to stay.

1. Where did the Parsis first come?
2. Why did the king not want the Parsis to settle there?
3. What did he send the Parsi community ?
4. Why did the Parsis pour a spoonful of sugar?
5. What message does the passage convey?

A recent poll on the subject of fear asked people to respond to a list of eight common phobias. The list included speed, heights, lifts, crowds, flying, confined spaces, open spaces, and the dark. It excluded things like snakes and spiders that are inherently dangerous. The poll revealed that more women than men admitted to experiencing fear. Before you jump to the conclusion that men are braver than women, you should be warned that one explanation for the figures may be that men are less inclined than women to owning up to fear. The poll also indicated that fear tends to increase with age and decrease with educational level.
