

Report on International Day of Democracy Celebration at Sri Bhagawan Mahaveer Jain Evening College

Date: September 15, 2023

Subject: International Day of Democracy Celebration at Sri Bhagawan Mahaveer Jain Evening College

The International Day of Democracy, celebrated globally on September 15th each year, is an occasion dedicated to promoting democratic principles worldwide, with a focus on human rights, the rule of law, and civic engagement. Sri Bhagawan Mahaveer Jain Evening College commemorated this significant day, upholding the spirit of democracy and reinforcing the importance of adhering to democratic values.

In response to the Bengaluru City University (BCU) Notification, Dr. K. M. Mahesh, the College Principal entrusted Dr. Dinesh N, the Associate Professor of the Commerce Department, with the coordination of the event. The celebration took place in the evening at the college quadrangle, and both students and faculty participated in the event.

The ceremony commenced with students and faculty coming together to read the Preamble of the Indian Constitution, emphasizing its significance and the values it encapsulates. This act served to remind everyone of the fundamental principles upon which the Indian democracy is built. A student was selected to read the preamble aloud, and after this, Dr. Satish A. P. read out the Kannada version, encouraging everyone present to join in with their vocals. The aim was to instill a sense of respect for the Constitution and to motivate everyone to adhere to its principles in their actions and conduct.

The participation of students and faculty members in this event was exemplary, displaying their dedication to upholding democratic ideals. By taking the oath to adhere to the Constitution, all attendees expressed their commitment to being responsible and conscientious citizens, abiding by the laws and principles that guide the nation.

The event provided a platform for meaningful discussions and reflections on the importance of democracy, human rights, and civic responsibilities. It reinforced the idea that democracy is a collective effort and that each individual has a role to play in upholding its values for the greater good of society.

The International Day of Democracy celebration at Sri Bhagawan Mahaveer Jain Evening College was a success, achieving its objective of promoting democratic principles and encouraging students and faculty to be active, responsible, and engaged citizens in a democratic society.
